Around the pool of Bethesda in Jerusalem, there were many people who were very sick. Every now and then, an angel would come and stir the water in the pool, and the first person to go into the pool would be completely healed of their disease. Among the many people who wanted to be healed was a man who had been sick for 38 years. Jesus saw the man and knew he had been sick for a very long time. “Do you want to be healed?” The sick man told Jesus earnestly, “When the angel stirs the water there is no one who can help me go into the pool.” Jesus said to the sick man, “Rise, take your bed, and walk.” Suddenly the sick man could walk again!

In another village there was a man who could not walk. His four friends carried his bed to where Jesus was staying. But when they got there, the house was filled with people and they could not go inside. So the friends went up to the roof, and lowered their friend and his bed down to Jesus. Jesus saw their faith and said, “Take your bed and go home.” And just as Jesus said, the sick man was able to walk home.

Today was Sunday, and it was time to go to Church School. But Namwoo didn't want to go to school today. There was a friend in his class named Charlie who kept on making fun of Nate. Charlie teased Nate again today, and Nate felt really bad. But during sermon, Namwoo heard his teacher say that, "just like sick people need to go to the hospital to be treated, people who are feeling bad should go to God to feel better.

Namwoo wanted to go home and pray to God. God said that He knew what was in everyone's heart. Namwoo prayed to God with an earnest heart. When God heard everything Namwoo had to say, and when Namwoo thought God knew everything, Namwoo felt a lot better.
