

People brought their children to Jesus. They wanted them to get blessed by Jesus. “It’s Jesus!” cried the children.

The disciples didn’t like seeing the children crowd around Jesus. “Go away, kids!” The disciples were bothered by the children.

But Jesus told his disciples, “Don’t prevent the children from coming to me. To go to heaven you must be like these children.” All the children ran to Jesus. Jesus loved and hugged and blessed the children. Jesus also loves you too, so much. All the children ran to Jesus. Jesus loved and hugged and blessed the children. Jesus also loves you too, so much.

Namwoo's mom was making him delicious spicy rice cakes.

Namwoo and his sister excitedly started to eat the food. "Brother, I'm thirsty." "Okay, I'll get you some water." Namwoo went to the kitchen and filled a cup with water. But Namwoo tripped on the way back and spilled everything!

Namwoo's mom was angry when she saw the spilled water.

"Who spilled the water?" Namwoo nodded and spoke in a small voice.

"Mom, I did it..... Namhee wanted water so I got her some but I spilled it." "It was a mistake..... I'm sorry, Namwoo. Anyone can make a mistake. I guess you really love your sister!" Namwoo's mom complimented him for his good heart.
