

God chose Saul to be Israel's first king. Samuel told Saul, "Saul, you will be the king of Israel."

Saul was humble. "I am not good enough to become a king." "God will be with you." Samuel poured oil on Saul's head and made him a king.

Samuel told King Saul, “God told you to destroy the sheep and cows of the Amalek people.” But Saul hid these sheep and cows. “Why didn’t you obey God? God is happy when you obey Him. Because you didn’t obey God, someone else will become the king of Israel.” Samuel scolded Saul. But Saul became more and more disobedient.

How full was the piggy bank now? Nate examined the piggy bank.

Wow! It was already full! “Mom, the piggy bank is full!” “That’s because you were a good boy and kept your promise. Alright! What should we do with this?”

Namwoo thought of the games his friends played with.

“Mom! I want to buy some games!” However, Namwoo’s mom thought that buying a bicycle would be more useful. “Namwoo, what if our entire family exercised together at night on bicycles? I think it would be nice if we could do that……” Namwoo thought a bicycle would be pretty good, too. “Sure mom! Let’s do that.”

Joyful Activity

Turn this boy into a king!

*directions are on page 13.

G
l u
e

Memory Verse

Trace this verse:

Serve Him
with all your heart
I Samuel 12:24

Write this verse:

To Teacher

To parents