

Before the Passover, Jesus was having one last supper with His disciples.

Jesus was going to be crucified very soon.

Jesus put a towel around his waist.

He poured water into a bowl and washed the feet of His disciples.

After washing all of His disciples' feet, Jesus spoke to them.

“Just as I washed your feet, wash each other's feet. Just as I loved you, love others.”

Namwoo was feeling good. He found his most favorite picture Bible, and finally met his uncle who loved and missed him. Namwoo decided to read his Bible again. Namwoo read that Jesus with his own hands took a towel and some water and washed his disciples' feet. This made Namwoo think.

"The feet are the dirtiest part of the body, but Jesus washed them anyway. Jesus must have really loved His disciples."

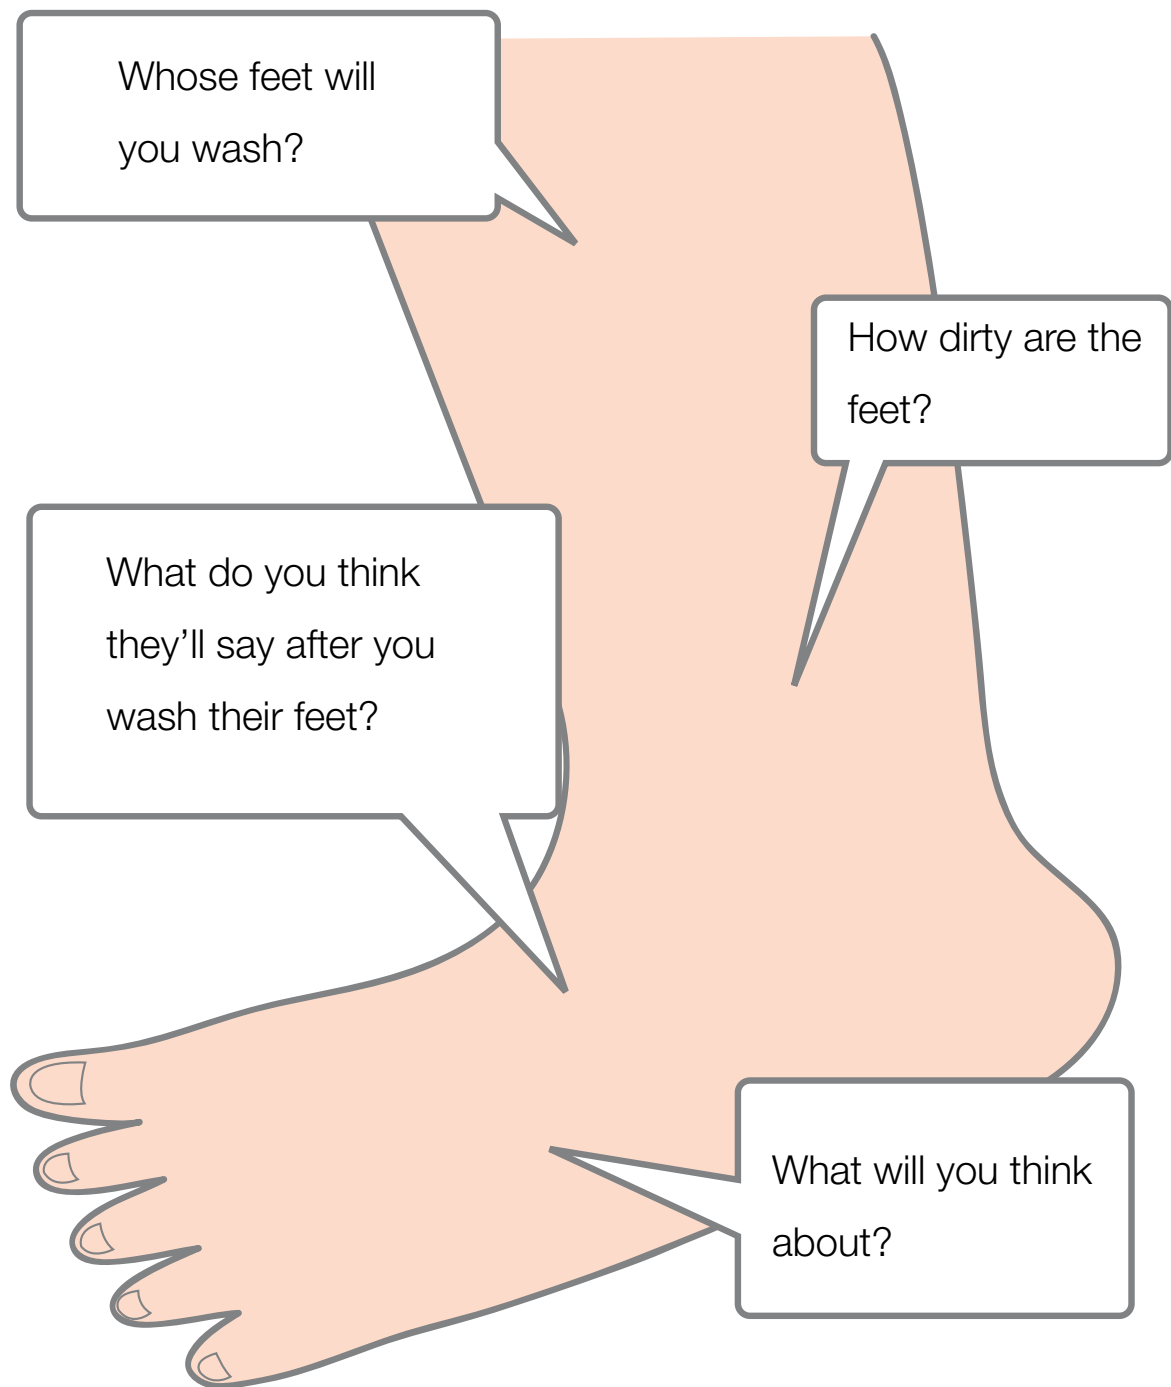

Namwoo decided he would do the same when his dad got home later that night.

“I love you dad! You’re the best!”

Just like Jesus, wash the feet of someone you love.

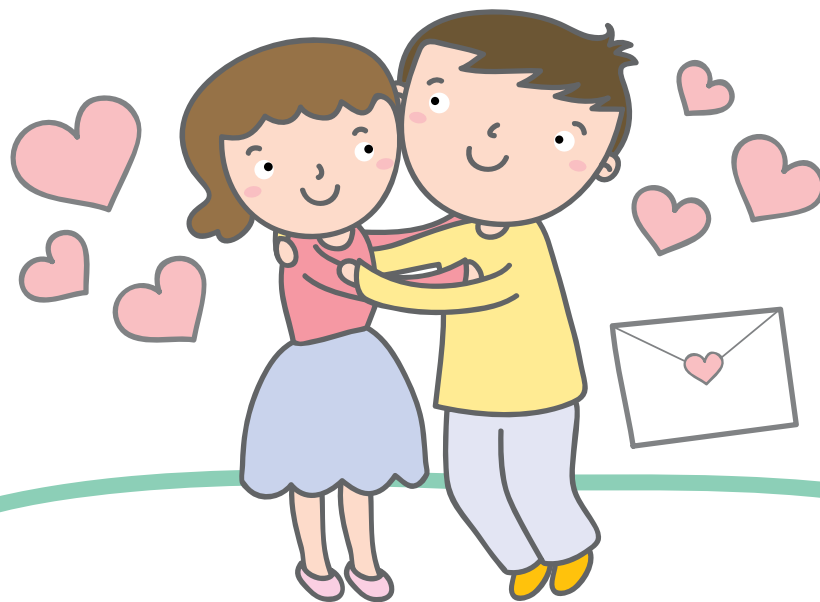

What can you do for those you love?

Think about you can do for the person you love.

You can write them a letter! Or you can hug them tight!

Think about what else you might be able to do.

Joyful Activity

Our feet are dirty, so let's clean each other's feet. Use a crayon to color and "clean" the dirty feet.
