

Joshua called two men. “Go and inspect the land of Jericho.” The two men went to the city of Jericho and came to Rahab’s house. Rahab believed in God.

That’s why she hid the two men. The soldiers who knew about this came to Rahab. “Bang! Bang! Bang!”

“Those two men are spies. Where do you hide them?”

Rahab replied, “They went out of the city.”

After hearing this, the soldiers left to catch them.

As the soldiers left, Rahab told the two spies,
“I have heard how the Lord divided the Red Sea
and allowed Israel to gain victory over other nations.
Please save me when you return to this city!”

“Yes. Bind a line of scarlet cord in the window and bring your family to your home. We will see the scarlet cord and save you.”

The two men safely went out of the city.

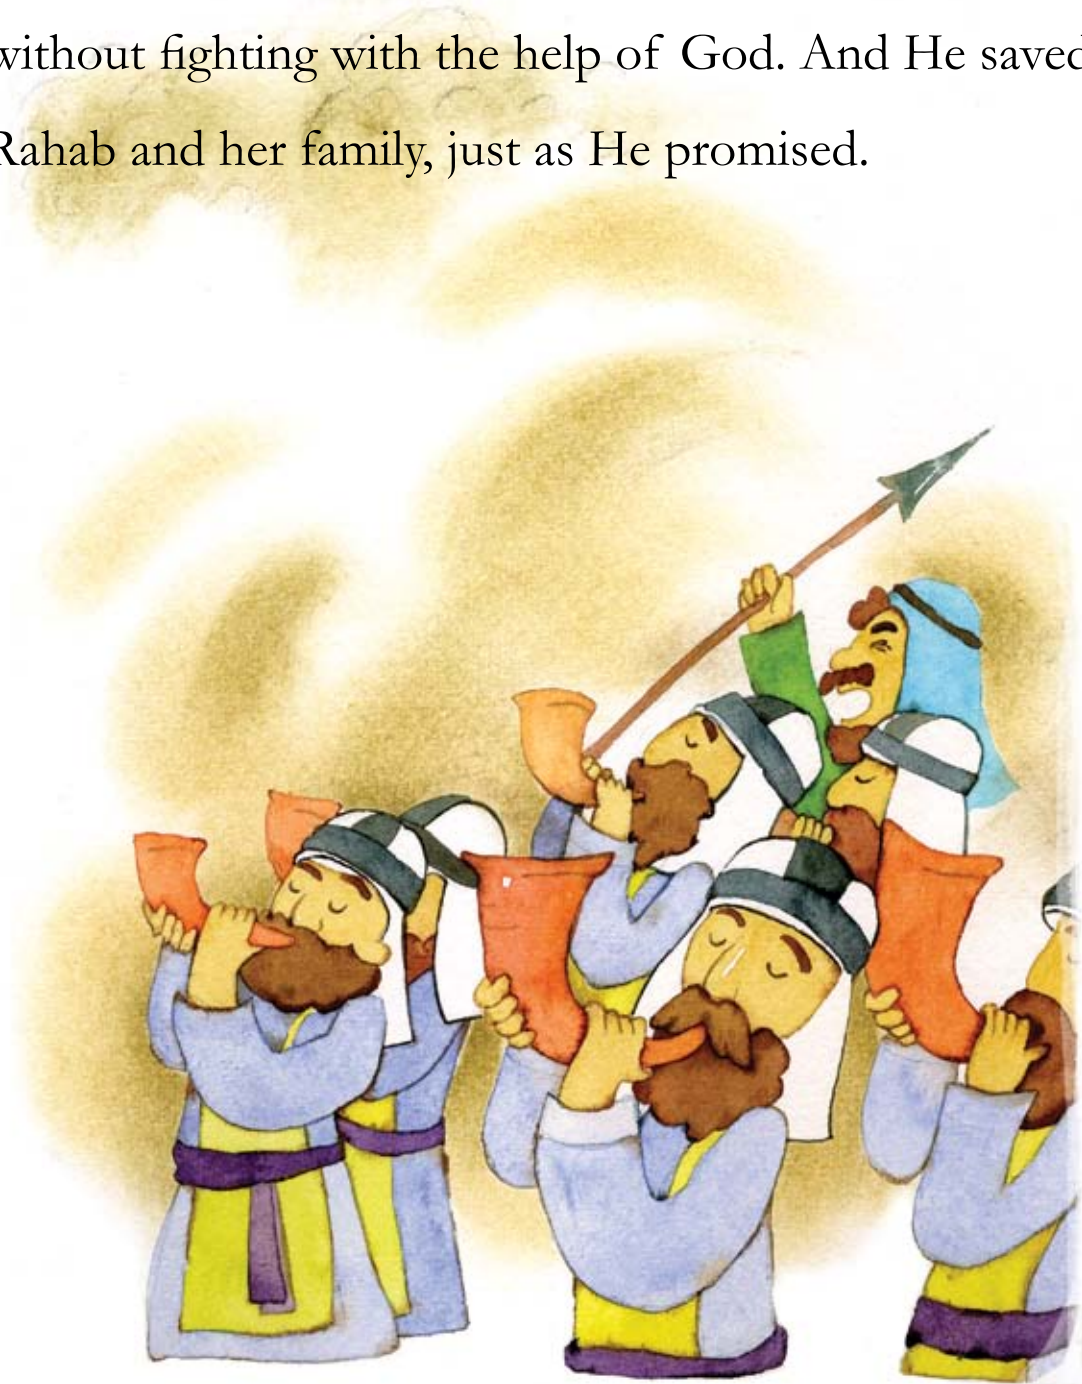

God spoke to Joshua. “March around the city of Jericho once for six days. On the seventh day march around the city seven times, and the high priests shall blow the trumpets and all the people shall shout with a loud voice. Then the city will be destroyed!”

The people of Israel marched around the city according to the word of God. Joshua told the people not to make any noise when marching around the city.

The seventh day came. The people marched around the city seven times. As the high priests blew on the trumpets, all the people shouted with a loud voice. “Ah! Ah! Ah!” Instantly the city of Jericho became destroyed. The people of Israel gained victory without fighting with the help of God. And He saved Rahab and her family, just as He promised.
