

Moses and Aaron came to see the king of Egypt.

“Let the people of Israel go! If not, then God will rain plagues on Egypt.”

But the king of Egypt said, “God? Who is God? I don’t know who he is. I will never let your people go!”

The king of Egypt made the Israelites do even more work.

God rained plagues on Egypt. The Nile river turned to blood. The fish in the water died.

“Ribbit ribbit!” The frogs swept over Egypt.

Flies swarmed over the land. All the Egyptians became very sick. Once Moses threw ash into the air, the dust became disease and infected man and beast.

Lice covered their bodies. “So itchy!” they said.

Hail rained from heaven and locusts covered the land.
For three days Egypt was dark. Moses warned the king of Egypt last time. “If you don’t let my people go,
God will kill all the firstborn in Egypt!”
But the king of Egypt did not listen to him.

Moses told the people of Israel, “Every house must kill a lamb and paint their doorposts with the blood!”

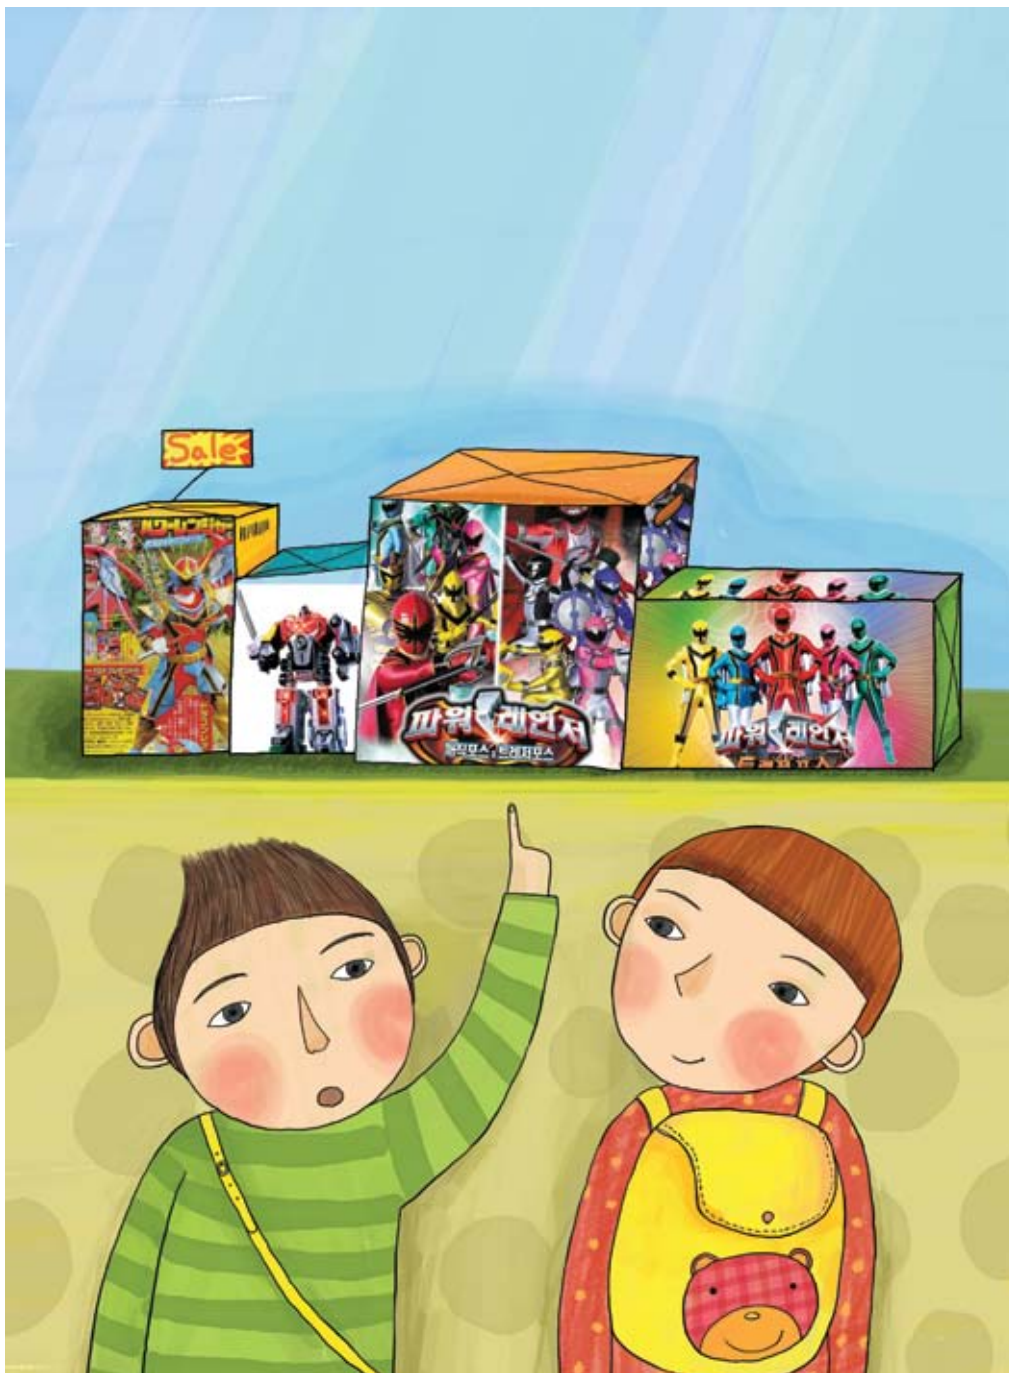

The people of Israel obeyed his words. That night, the son of Pharaoh and the sons of the people of Egypt died.

But none of the sons of Israel died. After all of this,

Pharaoh let the people of Israel go.

Admit what you did wrong!

Before Namwoo and his brother went to church, they stopped by a store. The store was filled with delicious crackers and fun toys. “I really want that.” “I do too…… how about we don’t pay offering once and buy it?” Namwoo’s heart was beating really quickly, but he bought the toy with his brother.

After sunday school ended, Namwoo's mom asked, "Where did you get this toy?" "A friend gave it to me." Namwoo turned bright red and his heart beat even faster. "I'm sorry Mom..... I bought the toy with my offering money..... I did a bad thing." As soon as Namwoo told the truth, Namwoo's mom hugged him tightly.

But his brother continued and continued to say that someone had given him the toy. He was punished by his father.

Why did Namwoo's mom hug him? What did his brother do wrong?
