

“Waul waul!” Twins were born in Isaac’s house.

The older twin was called Esau because he was hairy.

The younger twin was Jacob because he came out grabbing his brother’s foot. The brothers grew.

Esau became a great hunter. Jacob helped his mother.

Esau came back from hunting, and was very hungry.

“I’m starving! What’s this smell?”

Jacob was cooking stew.

“Give me some of that stew, brother. I’m hungry.”

Suddenly, Jacob had an idea.

“Give me your birthright and I’ll give you some stew.”

Jacob wanted God’s blessing.

Esau didn’t think the blessing was important.

“Fine. Give me the stew.”

Esau sold God’s blessing for a bowl of stew.

Isaac was old and blind.

One day, Isaac called Esau.

“Esau, go out and hunt and make me stew.

Then I will bless you.”

Rebecca heard this and called Jacob.

“Bring me a lamb. I will make stew and you will go and get your brother’s blessing.”

Jacob made himself look like Esau and went to his father.

“Father, it’s me, Esau. Eat this food and bless me.”

Becuase Isaac was blind he thought Jacob was Esau and blessed him. As promised Jacob became the greater of two brothers. When Esau found out, Jacob ran away from home.

Be careful! It's precious

It was raining one day. There was a strange thing wriggling in the pot.

“Dad, there’s a worm in the flowerpot!”

Namwoo was scared and thought the worm was icky.

“I’m going to throw it away!” “Wait, Namwoo. You can’t do that. This worm will help the plant grow.” “This gross thing?”
“That’s right, the worm helps the plant grow by digging into the ground with nutrients. You see, God created everything with a purpose. Even for this little worm. This is how God grows life.”
