

When are you thankful to God? When you're eating good food? When you get birthday presents?

Yes, that's right. Those times are thankful too.

But there are many more things we should be thankful for. For creating this world, for creating me, for showing me Jesus, for being able to go to heaven – there are so many things to be thankful for.

And we should be thankful for the fact that we can study all of these things in the church school. We should always be thankful students.

God wants us to be always thankful, always pray, and always be happy.
When am I happy? When do I pray? And when am I most thankful?

Try praying and saying thanks to God before you sleep.

“God, thank you for the sunlight in the morning. Thank you for the water to wash my face. Thank you for giving me a voice and smile to happily greet my friends. Thank you for giving me food to eat and water to drink. Thank you for giving me these comfortable blankets to sleep under. Thank you for loving me.”
